3. Agenda adopted
4. Principal report: (Ian Cooper)
 - a. Parent-teacher interviews well attended
 - b. School is settling in and classes are well underway
 - c. Upcoming events: Benevolence play, band show, and Remembrance Day assembly
 - d. Provincial assessments coming up in November
 - e. End of Term 1 on Nov 13, 2026
5. Financial report same as September. New report to come in November. Will report then on the gaming grant. New treasurer can send report asap.
6. Fundraising update: nothing started to date.
 - a. Passport to the Kootenays: Tovah will take this on
 - b. Nelson Chocofellar, Purdys, Fisherman's Market and OSO coffee month are other ideas
7. No DPAC or BCCPAC update available at this meeting.
8. Election of officers and finance committee members: we don't have quorum present. An email will be sent around for an official vote.
 - a. Lily Andersen is stepping down as chair, but is willing to be the co-chair
 - b. We need a new chair person to step forward
 - c. Potential finance committee: Selena Davis and Tovah McDermid
 - d. Signing officers: Proposed motion to come in an official email. The signing officers share x1, x2, x3 and x4; and these shall be the only signing officers for the LV Rogers PAC. All other previous signing officers will be removed.
9. Discussion Items:
 - a. Youth Linkage series put on by the NPD: November 2nd 7pm - 9pm Part 1 of the Linkage Series: Drug Trends, what we see, where to go, how to get help. This will be a forum event held at the Adventure Hotel and Ankors, and Freedom Quest, NPD and hopefully CYMH, will be present to openly talk parents, youth and community and answer questions. Subsequent evenings will counselling, relationships, and digital health

- b. KSA update: the building is now housing a lot of new initiatives, including Lily having a jewelry studio, a flex space for rent, other art studios, and several Indigenous groups
- c. PAC email address: lvrogers.pac@gmail.com
- d. Cavalcade cancellation:
 - i. The crux of the issue is the open alcohol drinking and sharing in public spaces
 - ii. The NPD are between a rock and a hard place on this issue.
 - iii. Grad parent committee has attempted in years past to mitigate the issue including: signed code of conduct, bag checks, pre-teaching to students by both staff and the police liaison
 - iv. Students have been working with Mr. Cooper to come up with something new to come up in the place of this missing event
 - v. Tracy will call Deputy Chief Jason Jukes to invite him to a Grad Committee meeting after the executive is formed
 - vi. PAC is committed to supporting a solution that the grads are in favour of

10. Next meeting will be Nov 18, 2026 at 6:30
